Report and Recommendations on COM's Involvement in Undergraduate Education

Strategic Curriculum Oversight Committee November20, 2015

The Strategic Curriculum Oversight Committee met with Rick Morin, Dean of the College of Medicine, on Wednesday November 11, 2016 to discussoredplans for increased indergraduate curricular offerings from the College of Medicine Dean Morin was sent questions in advance to help him prepare for the meeting.

Dean Morin stated that the CollegeMédicine (COM) does D 6>> BDC q 0.00000912 0 0 1 204.y Dean M

| X | COM's activities in thi | s area are consistent v | vith the entrepreneuria | al aims of Indomaticue |
|---|-------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------|
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |
|   |                         |                         |                         |                        |